

~ Montana ~

~ Booming in the Big Hole ~

April 15—17, 2011

Witness the Springtime Booming and Dance of the Male Sage Grouse as He Competes for His Mate

$1,175/Person—Use Dunrovin Horse
$875/Person—Use Your Own Horse

Ride the Open Ranges of Montana's Big Hole Valley on Sure Footed, Smooth Gaited, and People Friendly Tennessee Walking Horses

Learn About the Efforts of the National Wildlife Federation to Ensure the Health of Sage Grouse

www.DunrovinRanchMontana.com

1-877-373-7745

406-273-7745

Lolo, Montana

April 15 — Gather early at Dunrovin Ranch for a morning of horseback riding lessons and a welcoming lunch. Load the horses in the trailers and head out for Jackson Hot Springs with a stop at the Big Hole National Battlefield. Enjoy an evening swim and a gourmet dinner—but retire early in anticipation of the morning to follow!

Let Dunrovin Ranch Owner, SuzAnne Miller, help you bond with your new trip partner and trusty steed—a beautiful Tennessee Walking Horse .

Learn about the Nez Perce National Historic Trail and Big Hole National Battle Field—One of the West’s Most Evocative Places that Captures the Tragic Story of America’s Indian Wars

Take in the beauty of the Big Hole Valley and the tragic events that occurred there during the flight of the Nez Perce to try to reach the safety of Canada.

April 16—Rise at 3AM to venture out before dawn with Hank Fischer to a sage grouse lek where males put on a spectacular display as a full moon gives way to a colorful sunrise. Return to the lodge for a hearty brunch and mid day nap before an afternoon looking for sage grouse signs from the back of your horse.

Witness the Male Sage Grouse Dance and Boom at a Lek Site Under the Moonlight!

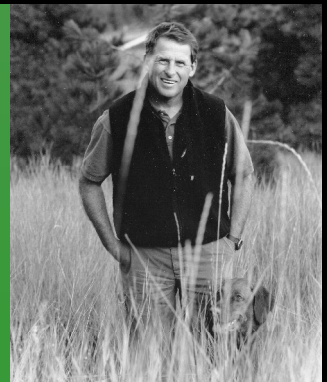

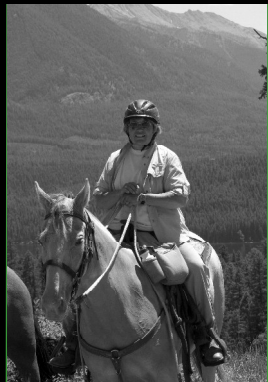

Bannack was Montana’s first territorial capital.

April 17—Another early morning! Visit Bannack with a history that is as colorful as the gold that lured the many miners, robbers, highway men, and vigilantes. Tour the town and ride to Road Agent Rock for outstanding views of this beautiful, wildlife filled part of Southwest Montana. Head home in the late afternoon.

WHAT A WEEKEND!

Personal Service Assured—Limited to 6 Clients
Natural Resource Professionals as Guides for an Unforgettable Adventure

Join Author and Naturalist
Hank Fischer
And Horsewoman and Natural Resource Research Consultant
SuzAnne Miller

www.DunrovinRanchMontana.com

1-877-373-7745

406-273-7745

Lolo, Montana